

Privacy policy

Consent for personal data processing

1. I (hereinafter referred to as the Individual) hereby give my consent to HybridProduction Kft. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) for processing of my personal data specified at the time of the application filing on the Company's website or any other way of applying to the company (hereinafter referred to as the Application) and communication within the Application processing, as well as other related purposes within the framework of the current legislation of the Hungarian Federation and the technical capabilities of the Company
2. Consent is given for personal data processing, both without automation tools use, and with their use.
3. Consent is given for processing of the following personal data: surname, name, patronymic, contact phone number, e-mail address, as well as other personal data that can be used for the Individual identification, in case if the Individual voluntarily provides it to the company.
4. For purposes of obligations fulfillment under the agreement the Individual provides HybridProduction Kft. with the right to carry out any actions (operations) with his (or her) personal data without restriction: collection, recording, accounting, systematization, storage, specification (updating, modification), extraction, accumulation, de-identification, blocking, removal, destruction; use for statistical purposes, for analysis purposes, for the purpose of the Individual informing (by sending SMS or e-mail) about the Company's products and services, as well as any other actions with due regard to the current legislation.
5. The bases for the personal data processing are the following items: Article CXII 2011 of the law on self-determination and freedom of personal data of the Republic of Hungary; other federal laws and regulatory legal acts.
6. Personal data are processed before liquidation of HybridProduction Kft. Storage of personal data is carried out in accordance with the Article CXII 2011 of the law on self-determination and freedom of personal data Republic of Hungary and other regulatory legal acts in the field of archiving and archive storage.
7. This consent of the Individual for processing of the personal data specified at the time of the application filing on the Company's website, sent (filed) using this website is effective from the moment of the Application sending on the Company's website until its revocation. Consent for processing of the personal data specified at the time of the application filing on the Company's website, sent (filed) using this website may be revoked by the Individual by filing a written statement (revocation) to the Company. Personal data processing is terminated within 2 months from the moment of the Person's written statement (revocation) receipt by the Company and/or in the event of achievement of the processing purpose and is destructed on time and conditions established by law, unless otherwise specified. De-identified personal data of the Individual may be used by the Company for statistical (and other research) purposes upon receipt of the statement (revocation) of the consent, and after achievement of the purposes, for which this consent was obtained.

8. This consent is valid all the time until termination of the personal data processing specified in the clauses 6 and 7 of this Consent.